E-Brief News

Cutler Bay Police Officer Recognized

Recently, at the November 18th Council meeting, Cutler Bay Officer James Timothy O'Riley was recognized for his act of kindness. While on routine patrol in the Saga Bay area, Mr. Stu Shaw approached the officer, asking for some advise on filing a report. He explained to the officer that someone had stolen a set of keys he had hidden on his property, he continued to express that he was having a series of unfortunate events and on top of it all he was very ill. Mr. Shaw said he didn't have health insurance and could not visit the doctor because one visit was too expensive. Officer O'Riley reached for his wallet and gave him all the money he had, which totaled $160.00.

Town of Cutler Bay's "Stoplifting" Program

At the recent Town Council meeting, on November 18th, the Council passed a resolution, sponsored by Mayor Vrooman, was passed to encourage local retailers to participate in a new program called the "Stoplifting" program. Participating store owners commit to supporting the prosecution of shoplifting criminals and the Town commits to arresting any perpetrators that are identified. A mutual pledge must be signed by the Town Manager and Town store owners to signify their commitment to such a program. Store signage will be a requirement of the program so that Town store owners signify participation in the Program and warn potential violators of the consequences of their actions.

Cutler Bay Circulator Bus – "Cutler Bay Sleigh"

Mayor Vrooman announced that the "Cutler Bay Sleigh," a holiday circulator bus for seniors, is back and will be doing rounds in the upcoming holiday season. The bus will start circulating on Monday, December 7th through December 28th from 10:00 am to 4:00 pm, every day except for Wednesday and December 25th. The senior circulator was originally not funded in the 2009-2010 Town budget, but with hard work and a lot of reaching out, Mayor Vrooman was able to gather sponsors for a private-public partnership this year.
